The trial of Arne Cheyenne Johnson, also known as the "Devil Made Me Do It" case, is the first known court case in the United States in which the defense sought to prove innocence based upon the defendant's claim of demonic possession and denial of personal responsibility for the crime. On November 24, 1981, in Brookfield, Connecticut, Arne Cheyenne Johnson was convicted of first-degree manslaughter for the killing of his landlord, Alan Bono. According to testimony by the Glatzel family, 11-year

Sexual desire, is one of my biggest ... demon. It makes me do things that normally I would never do. Sexual desire has the power to make me do things over my better judgement, and cause me to lose the control over my thoughts and my actions. It is a scary thing, this horniness. Again, I don't know why I'm saying all these.
