A Genius In The Family

"A genius in the family" is really touching, a turning page book. Musical details are very well described and it has many photos about all the family. An incredible biography written by a person very close to Jacqueline Du Pré. The attitude of Hilary towards Jacqueline is, at least for me, inconcivable and amazing.

Du Pré's closeness to her family--in particular her sister (and early musical rival) Hilary, and brother Piers--has been well-documented, but the publication of A Genius in the Family was a revelation. Among other things came the blithe disclosure that the moody, brilliant du Pré, during a difficult period in her life, regularly slept with Hilary's husband "Kiffer"--with Hilary's blessing.
