I read Patty Cornwell's new Kindle single called 'Chasing the Ripper' last night. Before you rush out to buy it you should know it's simply an article she's written that she's charging $1.99 for. It's an estimated 47 pages, but I think it's more like 35, and if you take out all the I's, Me's, and My's, it's more like 10.

I can understand how the case of Jack the Ripper becomes an obsession. And for Patricia Cornwell, it started when she first heard about the case and decided to write Portrait of a Killer: Jack the Ripper--Case Closed framing the case with forensic evidence. Her conclusion - that Walter Sickert was the Ripper - met with a great hue and cry from the "Ripperologists" and now she is publishing a ...
