Confessions of an Heiress. Annabelle's mother is successful, generous and intelligent; the perfect businesswoman and mother - or, at least, that's what the world believes. For Annabelle, however, home life with her mother is a very different story.

Confessions of an Heiress by R.J. Sloane

Confessions of an Heiress Summary. Paris Hilton wrote Confessions of an Heiress because she felt the need to explain who she really is. In her book, she has created several rules on how to be and act like an heiress. She suggests that some of the most "important" socialites made up their lineages and that anyone who wants to become an heiress can do this as well.

There's a typo in my copy of Paris Hilton's Confessions of an Heiress. The error, small but significant, says Paris turned 23 on February 27, 2004 — not February 17, her actual birthday. "The last year has been so intense," she wrote. "I know it was my biggest leap in terms of growing and changing."
