Legacy and influence. The recognition and the honour that were the due of Dante's Divine Comedy did not have to await the long passage of time: by the year 1400 no fewer than 12 commentaries devoted to detailed expositions of its meaning had appeared. Giovanni Boccaccio wrote a life of the poet and then in 1373-74 delivered the first public lectures on The Divine Comedy (which means that Dante was the first of the moderns whose work found its place with the ancient classics in a ...

Dante - Legacy and influence | Britannica

The Dante Legacy Series. The Dante family is the #1 fan favorite of romance series. For a Dante, it only takes one heated touch — the legendary burn of The Inferno — to find his or her soul mate. From that first tender meeting of hands, the spark ignites and grows into an intensely romantic inferno. There's no escaping it.
