Incarnate: The Body of Christ in an Age of Disengagement, by Michael Frost. Downers Grove: InterVarsisty Press, 2014. The prevalence of digital communication media in culture and the ministry of the church is the source of much anxiety, confusion and commentary for those paying attention to these changes. It seems that the various effects of the depersonalization of mass media are beginning to be more widely recognized (see Aitz Ansari's new book, Modern Romance ).
