Stances - Northern Shaolin Kung Fu Stance training is important for building strength in the legs and learning how to properly shape the stances in the forms.
Good stances are stable, strong, ready to change and are the foundation of the power in Kung Fu techniques. Northern Shaolin is famous for its long and low Bow stance.

Stances - Northern Shaolin Kung Fu
Ma Bu (Horse Stance) - The stance typically begins with the feet a shoulder-width apart. The feet are parallel, straight forward, and the knees are bent at 90 degrees. The torso sinks down as if following a plum line and the sacrum curves forward and in or arches. Equal weighting (50-50) is given to each foot, making for a very stable stance.
