I bought this book along with Meg: Origins (a short story prequel which give life to an event constantly referenced but never explained in full in Meg: A Novel of Deep Terror). Meg: Origins is free BTW There wasn't really very much to this book. It is relatively short and most of the characters are a bit flat and boring.

The book was pretty good- kind of a cross between Deep Blue Sea and Jurassic Park. It is strictly a thriller/creature novel, no deep science or philosophy here, but generally entertaining all the same. The narrator was ok, hearing him do women's voices was a bit ridiculous, but I got through the book.
