The mermaid symbolizes a treacherous femininity, the lure of a deadly, underwater darkness. The masculine minotaur represents unnatural lust in all of its mindless, greedy power.

The Mermaid and the Minotaur Analysis - eNotes.com

At its most immediate and activist level, her great book, The Mermaid and the Minotaur is the Uncle Tom's Cabin of men raising children. When men did this for most of human history, they developed the human qualities now wrongly called "feminine" - patience, attention to detail, flexibility, value for human life; everything that comes from raising, or being raised to raise, children.
