Mr Norris Changes Trains Christopher

Mr Norris Changes Trains (published in the United States as The Last of Mr. Norris) is a 1935 novel by the British writer Christopher Isherwood. It is frequently included with Goodbye to Berlin, another Isherwood novel, in a single volume, The Berlin Stories. Inspiration for the novel was drawn from Isherwood's experiences as an expatriate living in Berlin during the early 1930s, and the character of Mr Norris is based on Gerald Hamilton.

What a combination Mr Norris not only changes trains but comes face to face with the late great Beryl Cook. Fantastic colour plates to enhance the narrative. What would Christopher think ? I'm sure he would be happy with the characterisation, and the illustrations retain the ambiguity of the narrative.

Mr Norris Changes Trains (Book) | San Francisco Public ...

MR NORRIS CHANGES TRAINS The first of Christopher Isherwood's classic 'Berlin' novels, this portrays the encounter and growing friendship between young William Bradshaw and the urbane and mildly sinister Mr Norris. Piquant, witty and oblique, it vividly evokes the atmosphere of pre-war Berlin, and forcefully conveys an ironic political parable.
