The success of her blog led to Quinn's first book, the just-published Notes from the Underwire: Adventures from My Awkward and Lovely Life (Hyperion, $14.99). Technically speaking, it's a collection of first-person essays, a sort of episodic memoir, although that description makes the book sound way more serious than it really is.

Notes From Under The Underwire | ILiveInEastVan.com

Quinn has (very successfully) reinvented herself as a writer and has just published her first book, Notes from the Underwire: Adventures from My Awkward and Lovely Life. If we're talking recipes, then Quinn's writing style reminds me of a 3/4 cup of David Sedaris, peppered with a dash of Susan Orlean. Plus she has a strong animal rights conscience.
