Additionally, Maimonides will frequently make substantially the same point at least three times; once in the Perush ha-Mishnayot, once in the Sefer ha-Mitzvot, and once in the Mishneh Torah. In many cases, I was comfortable quoting the source just once, and adding a note for the other places, so the serious researcher can furrow further.

Abstract: The article argues for three pedagogic uses of the Ramban al hatorah which the author believes are not currently being employed. The first use is viewing the Ramban al hatorah topically, as a sugya, both where Ramban brings in other sources himself and when Ramban discusses the same topic on several different occasions.
