Under the command bar is the chord table that contains the chords that are used in a song or section. In each chord in the list the chord root and chord type will appear to the left and the chord duration will appear to the right. Clicking a chord (short-click) opens the chord editor menu (shown to the right of the main screen in the tablet version). From the chord editor you can edit all the individual properties of a chord, insert new chords or remove the currently selected chord.
