In Ready for Revolution: The CNT Defense Committees in Barcelona, 1933-1938, Guillamón revisits the Spanish Revolution. The Defense Committees were rank-and-file organizations created by members of the anarcho-syndicalist union Confederación Nacional del Trabajo (CNT), which was by far the dominant union force in Barcelona in the 1930s.

Review of Ready for Revolution, by Jorge Valadas

Just like his 'Friends of Durruti' book , Agustín Guillamón's Ready for Revolution looks at the real heroes of the Spanish Revolution, the people who operated in the CNT defence committees in Barcelona (1933-38). Without them there would have been no revolution and the fascists would have been successful on day one of the army mutiny.
