Anna Funder, the author and narrator, travels to Berlin from Australia in 1996. She's there to work for a German TV station and research the state of the country following the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989, and the ensuing collapse of the Communist East German state. Funder's research centers around the "Stasi," the East German secret police and surveillance force.

Stasiland: Stories From Behind the Berlin Wall ... Stasiland makes no attempt, or pretence, at a rounded portrait of the German Democratic Republic. The people Anna talks to are almost all either clear-cut victims of the regime or relatively high-level Stasi personnel. Perhaps the one exception is Klaus Renft, the "bad boy of East German rock'n ...
