The collaborative work of Justine Larbalestier and Sarah Rees Brennan... Mel and Cathy and Anna have passed vampires on the street and sat near them in cinemas, but they don't know any. Vampires stick to their own kind, and Mel and her friends hang out with other humans—until a vampire boy in a bizarre sun-proof suit shows up at school and captures Cathy's heart.Mel is horrified.

Team Human - Sarah Rees Brennan

Team Human co-written by Justine Larbalestier and Sarah Rees Brennan is a very unique vampire book. It pokes fun at all the books and movies that have come before, but in an endearing way (somewhat like Enchanted the movie did for fairy tales). We are introduced to a fun protagonist, Mel, whose best friend, Cathy, falls in love with a vampire.

Team Human - Sarah Rees Brennan,Justine Larbalestier Parodying Twilight is incredibly easy, but also, very quickly it becomes tiresome. Once you point out the oddness of anyone more than a hundred years old voluntarily going to high school, and the awkwardness of dating someone old enough to be your great great grandfather, what's left?

Team Human by Justine Larbalestier and Sarah Rees Brennan. Book Reviews. I'm in love this book. I do love a book that pokes fun at something with good humor just as much as I love a nice, dark paranormal read where the characters must protect the world and themselves from something big, bad, and terrible. From the first pages, the humor is apparent in this book.

Team Human by Justine Larbalestier and Sarah Rees Brennan

Team Human. My previous book was an anthology, Zombies v Unicorns, which I edited with Holly Black. Since we managed to do that without killing each other I decided it was time for me to collaborate on a whole novel and sought out a willing partner in crime. Sarah Rees Brennan stepped up to the plate even though she knows nothing about baseball (or cricket, for that matter, or any sport really) and we wrote Team Human.
