Synopsis - Julie Garwood

The Bride followed by The Wedding are, in my opinion, Garwood's best work. If you are new to Garwood, these 2 books are a great place to start. Julie Garwood is different than most of the romance authors that I read in the fact that I find myself loving her heroines even more than her heroes!

The Wedding (Lairds' Fiances, #2) by Julie Garwood

At the heart of 'The Bride' is a power struggle between the bride (Jamie) and her new husband (Alec). It's funny and steamy, nothing like real life bickering couples. At the command of the English king, Jamie and her sister are forced to wed Scottish lairds Alec and Daniel.
