The Chamber (1996 film) - Wikipedia

It seems like most critics - and much of the public - considered "The Chamber" the worst adaptation of a Grisham novel ever. When I saw the movie, I didn't find it terrible, though not a great movie either. Maybe it was just that many people - myself not included - counted "A Time to Kill" as one of the best adaptations, and dismissed this one.

The Chamber (1996) - IMDb

In The Chamber, John Grisham was preaching a message that Sam was a bad guy who did not deserve to die. In other words, he is against capital punishment. He managed to get the point across that Sam was a bad guy, but he didn't make it seem that Sam should have lived.

A John Grisham Novel - "The Chamber" Book Summary

Another brilliant book by John Grisham. His character portrayal is utterly believable and his stories are tense and intriguing. This book is just that and the plot keeps you guessing as to what the outcome may be for the bulk of the tale. You love his good guys and hate the bad ones! I loved The Chamber. He remains one of my favourite authors.
