Classical pugilism, or in our context bare-knuckle boxing, can trace its recorded origins as a sport back to the late 17th/early 18th century. The first bare-knuckle champion of England was James Figg in 1719, a title he held until he retired in 1730. From then on the sport proved to be exceptionally popular amongst the working and upper classes alike up to the publication of the Marquess of Queensberry Rules in 1867 that effectively drove the sport to the brink of extinction.
