The Descent Of Alette

The Descent of Alette is a 1992 book length poem by the American poet Alice Notley. The poem has been seen as offering a feminist critique of the genre of epic poetry. The poem is notable for Notley's extensive use of quotation marks throughout, which she has described as part of her attempt to reclaim the narrative function.

The Descent of Alette - Wikipedia

Epic and slow moving, The Descent of Alette dramatizes a single womans battle against an ancient patriarchal force. The novel-inverse follows Alette, the narrator, as she wages war against the evil, omnipresent Tyrant, the personification of patriarchy; the Tyrant has imprisoned everyone underground in a subway system, and only with his defeat can people return to the surface and reconnect with the natural world.
