Animals interacting with dying humans can alter the land- scape of human death, as for example in hospice pet-therapy programs. Animals, ironically, seem able to “humanize” the dying process. Research also suggests that elderly people with pets stay more active and engaged and rate themselves as happier than their animal-less counterparts.

The Dying Animal - EIU

THE DYING ANIMAL, is both pornographic and poetic, sexual and sentimental, and ultimately, a socio-sexual history lesson, a love story, cultural commentary, and dirty old man's fantasy all rolled into a pithy 156-page package. This truly is a book for the thinking man's lothario, and Roth, as usual, masterfully balances some of the most pressing intellectual issues of the past 50 years with the most pressing issues of the flesh that has faced man since time immemorial.
