The Réti: Move by Move - Everyman Chess

The Réti Opening is a hypermodern chess opening whose traditional or classic method begins with the moves: 1. Nf3 d5 2. c4 White plans to bring the d5-pawn under attack from the flank, or entice it to advance to d4 and undermine it later. White will couple this plan with a kingside fianchetto to create pressure on the light squares in the center. The opening is named after Czechoslovakian Richard Réti. The opening is in the spirit of the hypermodernism movement that Réti championed, with ...

Nigel Davies (chess player) - Wikipedia

The Reti Opening is one of the subtlest ways for White to open a chess game. At very little risk to himself, White prepares to chip away at Black's position. Spielmann once wrote of the opening's inventor, Richard Reti, 'Very frequently and only after a few moves, I would find myself settling down against him with a lost position without knowing exactly how it could possibly have happened.'
