I purchased Volume III & IV and returned them. The issue is that the publisher has replaced the handwritten title of each tune with an ugly, white rectangle and added another title above it. And thanks to this unnecessary effort, the title and the actual music sheet are split into two pages. Volume I, II, & V doesn't seem to have such problem.

Circulation of Capital is the second of three volumes of Capital: Critique of Political Economy. It was prepared by Friedrich Engels from notes left by Karl Marx and published in 1885.

Das Kapital, Volume II - Wikipedia

A form book is a tool used by attorneys to aid in the filing of pleadings, motions and other legal documents with a court or similar decision-making body. A form book may be a bound volume or binder containing loose-leaf pages, containing forms, clauses and model documents that the attorney might use when preparing a legal document or court pleading.
