The Lady The Vampire A

The Lady Vampire. Historians believe that Stoker started out to write Dracula with a female vampire, Princess Eleonore of Lobkowitz, in mind. The story was originally to begin as Jonathan Harker, the hero of the story, approached her tomb. She attacked him and he passed out, awakening later to find a wolf sitting on his chest.

My notes on the Japanese vampire movie Onna Kyuketsuki (The Lady Vampire) (1959) It's impossible to overestimate the impact Hammer Films had on the international horror scene in the late 1950s. It was predictable that the one-two punch of The Curse of Frankenstein and Dracula would prompt a revival of famous monster subjects in Hollywood, but when these films were seen around the world, countries with no previous record of this sort of thing started turning out vampire movies - including ...

THE LADY IS A VAMP is the love story of Jeanne Louise Argeneau (a minor character in many books of the series) and Paul Jones (who kidnaps Jeanne Louise to turn his dying daughter into an immortal). Despite the de rigueur sex scenes in the novel, the chains in the story did not have 50 shades of usage (for which I was very thankful).
