The Unfolding Drama of the Bible: Anderson, Bernhard W

In The Unfolding Drama of the Bible, he describes the Biblical message as a drama in three acts, bookended by a prologue and an epilogue. The prologue deals with creation, the first act which he calls: "The formation of God's people", deals with the exodus from Egypt, the Covenant, the people's disobedience, decay and injustice.

THE UNFOLDING DRAMA OF REDEMPTION - Chugley's Chatter

Book Review: The Unfolding Drama of the Bible In the olden days (when I was an intolerant fundamentalist) I would never have read Bernhard Anderson's book, The Unfolding Drama of the Bible. I would have dropped the book against a wall (funny how certain books are capable of defying gravity that way) at the first mention of Second Isaiah.

THE SOMETIMES PREACHER: Book Review: The Unfolding Drama ...

This outline reveals the Bible as a single, unfolding and redemptive drama. History begins in Genesis with the creation of the world and ends in Revelation with its renewal. You and I live somewhere in between these two extremes, in the now and the not yet. The essential point is that we are a part of this epic "race" of history.

The unfolding of the COVID-19 drama. For the past few months, like most Bahamians, I have watched the COVID-19 (new coronavirus) drama unfold from afar, watching the news and regretting the stories of pain and despair, first in China, then Iran and Italy, then seeing the pandemic begin to affect Europe and finally in our backyard, affecting the United States of America (USA) and the Caribbean.
