Train Through Time Series by Bess McBride - Goodreads

The "Train Through Time" series is a five-book, time travel, science fiction-romance saga. Each of the five books in the series focuses on the story of a different, young woman who gets on a train in the 21st Century, but falls asleep and awakens in the very early years of the 20th Century, penniless and "scandalously" miss-dressed.

Amazon.com.au:Customer reviews: Train Through Time Series ...

A Train Through Time had an interesting plot and characters. I loved the concept of Elle going to sleep on a modern day train and then awakening on a train in 1901 to a gorgeous man. The plot wasn't exactly a page turner, but it certainly had enough twists and turns to keep you guessing.

A Train Through Time (Train Through Time, #1) by Bess McBride

The book's structure is interesting: she alternates between an account of a childhood train trip through the snowy West with some of her experiences reporting from dangerous places. Farnsworth's mother had just died at the time of the train trip, and her father took her across the country to see relatives in California.

A Train through Time: A Life, Real and Imagined by ...

These invented scenes—the author riding the powerful horse through the train's cars and the train's peril, which had occurred the year before—emphasize her emotional vulnerability at the time. Although the episode felt to her "as if it actually happened," it confuses the narrative.
